CAROLINE VAN HOEK

DAVID HUYCKE

HERE AND NOW

September 7 - October 14, 2017

At the occasion of Design Miami/ Basel in June 2017 we introduced David Huycke's newest work; a very different direction from previous pieces, revealing a dramatically developed view on working the metal.

The wall piece Night is an abstraction from the relation between space and object, from the decorative aspect, and from the classic vessel shape.

To the blind eye these new works have nothing to do anymore with silversmithing, the connoisseur nevertheless will respect the necessary skills to realise these. David does not need to show of his silversmithing skills anymore, one could say this is a statement of independence and a true liberation of the message from the technique and of the artist from the craftsman.

Here and now is the first solo exhibition of David Huycke's work since 2011 in his home country Belgium.

Join us during the Brussels Gallery Weekend for the opening on Thursday September 7, from 5-9 pm in presence of the artist.
