Reproduction of social inequality

Service-learning for student success

Benefit already privileged groups with critical thinking and multicultural skills necessary for the knowledge economy

Service-learning for entrepreneurship

Service-learning can reproduce exclusionary mechanisms by reinforcing the colonial and the neoliberal mindset

Deficit-thinking

Fatalism

Assistencialism

Neoliberal client –
company relationship

Wrong view about social service

I am a Brazilian, I am my language, I am my food, I am my climate, just like you are your language, your climate, your food, your feelings, your dreams. And we cannot export dreams. (Freire, 1996)

What is education?

Possibility to reinvent, to dream

We are unfinished beings

Our existence in the world

Human nature

We are historical beings

Social transformation

Utopia

Learn about the different

Education for whom? For what? In favour of which dream?

For a democratic society

Education is not neutral

Teachers also need to have their own dreams

Two essential qualities of education:

The act of creation and Solidarity

Love and hope

dreams

Become humanized together

Recreate local power

Earth

Solidarity as anti-colonial praxis (Santiago-Ortiz, 2019)

Mutual recognition of the 'other'
inside 'us'

Overcomes the binary logic oppressoroppressed (Fernandes, 2016)

Shared struggle

Solidarity has to be constructed in our bodies, in our behaviours, in our convictions. (Freire, 1996, 81).

Make mistakes

Humanization – the capacity to dream your own dream

No fear

No shame

HUMAN

What do you know about the local communities? About their culture? Their dreams? About alternative ways of being? Of being successful? Of being happy?

What do you know about your own dreams? About your own struggle within the current system? About your own humanity?

Learn to be interested in others and yourself.
It might save all of us.
